College of DuPage Theater's production of “A Christmas Carol” by Charles Dickens, adapted by William J. Norris, directed by Amelia Barrett, COD professor and Chair of Theater, comes to the MAC November 20 – 29 (specific performance times listed below). This family-friendly 70-minute play brings to life the classic tale of Ebenezer Scrooge, who learns that change is always possible and about the great joy of caring for those less fortunate. With an exuberant cast of 50 people from the community, this marks the 19th time College Theater has presented this classic tale to usher in the holiday, in what has become a MAC tradition. Tickets and more information are available at AtTheMAC.org.
